6/2/2020 9:09	Holy Moore	Dr. Krishnamarthy - there are a varieties of articles, books and sites that discuss team science, but I have not seen a guide to those references. Maybo -km hav. That is a great ideal. One good comprehensive analysis of team science with recommendations is the report from the National Academics of Science Engineering and Medicine on this topic in 2015. You can download the POT for them.

6/2/2020 8:05	Dr. Darcy Peterka	That takes a bit of time for new teams, I think. But once that trust is there, lots can get done.
6/2/2020 8:05	Dr. Darcy Peterka	Many investigators are used to driving their own programs, all decisions, etc. In a true collaboration, you have to be willing to give.
6/2/2020 7.06	Hally Moore	What are the most important differences between team science and our traditional paradigm of the "single responsible PI" model?e.g. Do we need new paradigms for acknowledging oredit for contributions to a project and IP?
	Dr Kethik Krishnemurthy	yes, team science has helped me find new cellaborations
